

Some of the Key Countywide Planning Issues

- Amount of growth in Sac County compared to balance of region?
- Will Sac County be an urban or suburban area in future?
- How much development in transit corridors?
 - oversupply of vacant employment lands
 - lots of arterials with low density development - candidates for re-urbanization
- Integrating Sac County urban areas with West Sac, Roseville, etc.
- Where to place greenfield development given:
 - natural resource issues
 - need to balance jobs and housing in urban subareas of region
