

AGENDA

Rural-Urban Connections Strategy Land Use Current Conditions Workshop

Monday, September 29, 2008

10:00 a.m. – Noon

California Farm Bureau Federation
2300 River Plaza Dr
Sacramento, CA 95833

10:00 a.m. Welcome and Introduction to the Rural-Urban Connections Project
(Mike McKeever)

10:10 a.m. Rural Land Use Current Conditions Overview
Summary of Rural Land Use Policy Research

Key Questions:

- What are the goals of land use policies and standards in the rural areas of the region?
- Are recent land use trends consistent with the goals?
- What is unique and what is common about land use goals and trends in the rural areas of our region?

Introduction to small group exercise
(David Shabazian)

10:30 a.m. Small Group Exercise
Identify developed areas that maintain the rural character, developed areas that are more “urban”, transition areas, and areas that conflict with agriculture

11:00 a.m. Table Reports and Plenary Discussion of Study Areas
Report outs from Small Group Exercise
Identify Possible Land Use Policy Innovations

11:45 a.m. Next Steps and Wiki Demonstration
(David Shabazian and Rebecca Sloan)

Noon Adjourn