

Affording Our Future: Smart Growth Strategies in a Profit-Driven World

September 5, 2013

Session I

Where: Veterans Memorial Hall
808 4th Street, Clovis

Time: 8:00 am - 1:00 pm

Cost: $25

What: Event features special presentation by planning thought leader Joe Minicozzi, case studies of new tools and techniques for measuring fiscal impacts of growth; and lunchtime plenary featuring Mayor Ashley Swearingin and Mayor Lynne Ashbeck.

Who Should Attend: Planning, real estate, and economic development professionals; planning commissioners; local elected officials; regional and state agency staff; community leaders and all who are interested in building financially stable communities.

Session II

Where: Fresno New Exhibit Hall
700 M St., Fresno

Time: 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Cost: FREE!

What: Event features special presentation by planning thought leader Joe Minicozzi followed by a panel discussion and community response on the challenges and opportunities for moving toward smarter development patterns.

Who Should Attend: Community and neighborhood leaders; planning, real estate, and economic development professionals; planning commissioners; local elected officials; and all who are interested in building financially stable communities.

For more information and to register: lgc.org/events/affording_our_future

Events organized by the City of Fresno, City of Clovis, and the Local Government Commission.