

2013 SACOG Salutes Award Winners

Regional Project of the Year

South Placer Transit Information Center— cooperative effort of Placer County Transportation Planning Agency, Lincoln Transit, Roseville Transit, Auburn Transit, Placer County Transit, and Health Express.

Blueprint Excellence (2 awards)

City of Sacramento— planning of the Intermodal Station and adoption of the Planning and Development Code.

Township 9—smart growth and transit oriented development.

Regional Organization of the Year

Feather River Air Quality Management District— continuous support of Yuba-Sutter Transit service expansion, infrastructure improvements and discounted fare for youth and seniors.

Citizen of the Year

Caroline Peck— resident advocacy and coalition building for bicycle safety improvements on Freeport Blvd. in Sacramento.

Regional Business of the Year

Sacramento Bicycle Kitchen—volunteer run business that provides maintenance and safety services and classes at low- or no-cost to residents.

Mary Brill Youth Excellence

Girl Scout Troop 4240—implementation of the Schools Flag Air Quality Awareness program in Yuba City, and creating a plan for their school to maintain the program after the troop members graduate.

Employee of the Year

Mike Wiley, Sacramento Regional Transit—distinguished leadership in negotiations of AB 1222 maintaining the flow of federal transit funds in the State of California.

Special Recognition – Collaboration

Sacramento Regional Fire/EMS Communications Center—collaboration to integrate service response across Sacramento County and the cities within.