

Connected & Automated Vehicle Workshop

Wednesday, January 17, 2018
9:00am to 2:30pm

Rancho Cordova City Hall
2729 Prospect Park Dr.
Rancho Cordova, CA

A free workshop aiming to provide a full slate of sessions to convey both the state of the art and the state of practice.

Sign up using Eventbrite

<http://goo.gl/S1yehn>

Special thanks to our lunch sponsors:

Agenda

9am — 9:30am

Registration & Networking

9:30am — 12pm

Welcome James Corless, CEO, SACOG

What's Happening

- Background (Mark Jensen, Cambridge Systematics)
- Applications for Connected and Automated Vehicles (Brian Burkhard, Jacobs)
- DSRC Testbed (Greg Larson, Caltrans)
- Truck Platooning (Matt Hanson, Caltrans)
- Technologies Leading to 5G (Jim Misener, Qualcomm)

12pm — 1pm

Lunch and Keynote Speaker Tim Wong, NVIDIA

1pm — 2:30pm

ITE and ITS CA Announcements

Public and Private Perspectives

Panel discussion led by Josh Peterman, Fehr and Peers.

- Matt Barth, UC Riverside
- John Thai, City of Anaheim
- Tim Wong, NVIDIA
- Sean Harrington, Verizon